

New Jersey Chinese-American Chamber of Commerce's 5th Anniversary Gala & Awards Banquet

Thursday, September 25, 2008 at Pines Manor, Edison, NJ New Jersey Chinese-American Chamber of Commerce (NJCACC) will host its 5th Anniversary Gala & Awards Banquet on Thursday, September 25, 2008, 6:00 pm – 10 pm, at Pines Manor, 2085 Route 27, Edison, NJ 08817, The theme this year is "Increasing Business Through Guanxi" and networking time will be available for you to start developing "guanxi" with people who would like to do business with you.

NJCACC is a not-for-profit and nonpolitical organization dedicated to promote business between members, help Chinese-American businesses enter mainstream American economy and facilitate US-China trade. For more information, please visit www.njcacc.org.

NJCACC will honor 8 distinguished Chinese-Americans

Outstanding Achievement in Community Service:

Ronald Chen
Siu Kuen Chen

Outstanding Corporate Achievement:

Howard Li, Waitex International Co., Ltd.
Tai Xie, Brightech International

Outstanding Achievement in Entrepreneurship:

Peter Koo
Peter Yu

Outstanding Legal Achievement:

Willard Shih

Outstanding Woman Business Achievement Award:

Jeannie Yi

In addition to an interesting keynote address by Dr. Jonas Wang, venture capitalist, there will be performances by magicians and professional dancers. Please join us and start your "guanxi" with potential business partners. Ticket prices: nonmembers $65 each; members $45 each. If you have not reserved a place but would like to come, please contact Y.C. Tsien, Executive Director at 732-507-7348 or ytsien@appliedinfo.com