

NJCACC Hosted Networking Lunch on May 20, 2009

New Jersey Chinese-American Chamber (NJCACC) hosted a networking lunch at King's Chef, Iselin, NJ on Wednesday, May 20, 2009. The 80 participants networked and exchanged business cards, heard from Assemblyman Upendra Chivukula, District 17, and Mayors Cecelia Birge and Hsing-Fu Hseuh of Montgomery and West Windsor, on how they would spend the US stimulus package in their areas, prior to eating a dim sum lunch. After lunch, the eminent political commentator, James McQueeny, spoke on the forthcoming governor's election in New Jersey. PNC Bank sponsored this event.

"This is one of our most successful networking events and we plan to repeat this format in the fall," said John Lau, Chairman of NJCACC.

Please visit the Photo Gallery on the left of this website to view the photographs of this event, courtesy of Katie Zehr, professional photographer.